Consent for a Credit Application:

For the purpose of processing your application and ongoing credit management of your account, Vodafone Pty Ltd (ACN 062 954 554) may need to disclose to a credit reporting agency:

- personal identifying details, including your name, current and previous addresses, driver's licence number, date of birth and employer;
- the fact you have applied for Vodafone mobile service, and any credit limit on your account;
- the amount of any payments which are overdue for at least 60 days, when steps have been taken by Vodafone to recover those overdue payments;
- where an overdue payment has been previously reported, advice that the payment is no longer overdue;
- cheques or credit card payments which have been dishonoured;
- court judgements or bankruptcy orders made against you;
- that, in the opinion of Vodafone, you have committed a serious credit infringement; and
- when Vodafone ceases to provide a service to you.

In accordance with the Privacy Act, I authorise Vodafone Pty Ltd to exchange with credit reporting agencies, credit providers named in reports from those agencies and other telecommunication providers, information about my personal credit, commercial activities or commercial credit worthiness.
